CITY CLUB'S FORUM FOR SUBURBAN DISCUSSION

Wyllis Abbot of Venice Finds Way to Decide Mutual Problems Among Cities

A forum where leading citizens of the communities suburban to Los Angeles may discuss their mutual problems is the desire of Wyllis S. Abbot of Venice, who spent a portion of yesterday afternoon in Glendale explaining his project to City Manager W. H. Reeves.

Mr. Abbot was recently appointed by the directors of the City Club of Los Angeles as chairman of a special suburban committee to be organized from among the 250 members of this organization who reside outside the city of Los Angeles.

Saturday, March 11, has been designated by the City Club as "Suburban Day." On this occasion it is the intention of the board of directors to invite suburban members of the club to be present and to participate in the discussion of the occasion.

Civic Problems His Hobby
Mr. Abbot is a member of the Abbot-Kinney company, owners of one of the pleasure piers of Venice. He has heavy holdings in Venice real estate and is chairman of planning commission of the city of Venice and secretary of the Santa Monica bay harbor board.

Many of the civic problems of greater Los Angeles overlap into the suburban communities, according to Mr. Abbot. He calls attention to the contemplated outfall sewage disposal system of Los Angeles and other vital problems of the city of Los Angeles.

"In nearly all the discussions at the City Club of Los Angeles, the large metropolis of this section, I find the projects under consideration affect suburban towns nearly as much and sometimes more than the territory actually enclosed within the city's borders," stated Mr. Abbot.

Outlines Needs for Forum
"I found that I could go to this town and that town and do business with them one at a time, but there was no place where I could get the combined sentiment, concerted action, or present a plea that might bring about intelligent co-operation of more than one town at a time—no place at all where I could talk to a group of towns at once."

"To obviate this lack and to meet this need, my plan was conceived. At our meeting this plan probably will be expanded and perfected by the committee into an effective organization for the general good of the city and all of its environs."

To appoint a working committee which will function efficiently is the main desire of Mr. Abbot. Among its members already are Rev. Dana Bartlett of Beverly, Charles C. Chapman of Fullerton and George A. Damon of Pasadena.

Among the citizens of Glendale, who are members of the Los Angeles City club, are the following:

List of Local Members
Attorney W. E. Evans, 333 North Orange street; Edwin H. Neill, 126 West Loma avenue; J. H. Niebank, 527 North Chester street; George C. Schaefer, 450 West Broadway; Charles S. Westlake, 358 Oak street; Samuel H. Williams, 612 South Adams street; James H. Woods, 122 West Milford street; W. W. Worley, 341 North Jackson street; Henry M. French, 315 North Cedar street; Calvin Whiting, 512 North Kenwood street; L. A. Armour, 1847 Gardena avenue; Arthur G. Arnold, 1368 North Columbus avenue; F. S. Balthis, 619 North Brand boulevard; C. G. Bell, 1000 North Brand boulevard; H. M. Bennett, 545 North Maryland avenue; J. H. Braley, 505 North Brand boulevard; Earl Brookings, 468 Salem street; John T. Cleat, 406 West Broadway; John W. Cleland, 1904 Gardena avenue; A. Cotter, 724 South San Fernando Road; E. E. East, 121 West Lexington Drive; J. H. Franklin, 246 North Central avenue; Frank Hare, 424 West Palm Drive; Harry T. Lockwood, 934 North Louise street; A. J. Lyon, 619 North Maryland avenue; and A. H. Minier, 118 East Palmer street.

Visitors Here From Honduras Republic

Miss Joy Sweeney, a graduate nurse, who is connected with the Glendale Sanitarium, is enjoying a visit from her parents, who have just arrived from Honduras, Central America.

Mr. and Mrs. Sweeney have been in Honduras for the past two years, where they were in service under the Board of Foreign Missions of the Seventh Day Adventists. They are guests at the Sanitarium at present and will not return to Honduras until after the General Conference to be held by the Adventists, in San Francisco early in May.

HIGH PRIEST GOES NORTH

Mattison B. Jones of Highland avenue and Kenneth road left this morning for San Francisco, Berkeley, Oakland, Santa Maria, San Luis Obispo, Modesto, Visalia, Coalinga and Bakersfield on his official visit as Grand High Priest of the State of California of Royal Arch Masons. Extensive preparations are being made to entertain him at these cities.

Who Wants a Siren? City Has Noisy One! Fire Chief to Sell it

Who wants to buy a siren? The city is going to sell the whistle on Fire Station No. 2 at Los Feliz Road and Brand boulevard because it does all the salesman said it would and more.

Fact is, the whistle made such a noise that it disturbed the peace of Burbank and Hollywood, as well as that of Glendale people.

Chief A. H. Lankford reported to the council last night the zizzzarrahroop, or something that sounds a million times louder than you can say that cute little word.

It originally cost $300, but the council should care. It needs the money to buy a dinner for the fire department in appreciation for their work on the new ladder truck which has created such favorable comment.

RIGDON ORGANIZES NEAR EAST DRIVE

200 Armenian Orphans Will Die Unless Glendale Does, Duty, Speaker Declares

"Two hundred Armenian orphans will starve to death this summer unless Glendale does her duty as a Christian community." This statement was made last night by E. L. Sims of Pasadena, district executive secretary for the Near East Relief, at a committee supper in the dining room of the First Methodist church.

Nathan Rigdon of 224 West Doran street was selected as chairman to organize an active campaign in this vicinity to raise Glendale's quota of $12,000. E. E. Osmond of 447 West Broadway, assistant cashier at the First National bank, was selected treasurer. Sunday, April 2, was appointed as Field Day.

Guy E. Talbot of Hollywood described some of his observations in the famine devastated districts of Asia Minor a few months ago. He said as many people there needed relief now as a year ago and that the refugee problem had added to the difficulty of feeding and clothing the destitute.

A few days ago word was received by the Los Angeles headquarters that food rations, already scanty, would have to be reduced one-fourth on account of lack of funds. In immediate response to a cablegram, for food as soon as possible a ship was recently dispatched for the Near East and another is to leave in a few days.

America is the only hope of these starving people, according to Mr. Talbot, who stated that they look to this country as their only hope of existence.

Alexandropol, which during the war housed 90,000 Turkish soldiers in 150 immense stone barracks, now is the scene of the largest orphanage in the world. About 200,000 tiny tots are cared for by executives of the Near East Relief. Practically every one of them was brought there half-naked, in a state of exhaustion from starvation. The hospital service now cares for over 6,000 children, one-half of whom have tuberculosis. High tribute to Glendale's generosity last year was paid both by Mr. Sims and Mr. Talbot. As the result of a campaign directed by Rev. W. E. Mottern of 211 North Adams street, who is now actively engaged in the state campaign, four tons of clothing was collected and $6200 in money donated.

"The people of Glendale contributed more liberally than any other community in southern California," declared Mr. Talbot.

Captain A. Fleming Sees Winter Sights

Captain A. Fleming of 1137 East Elk avenue has just returned from a visit of two weeks at the ranch home of Frank Litchfield, his step-son, near Oroquieta, in Tulare county. Mr. Litchfield is located near the mountains, on a large fruit ranch, and was very fortunate in having his fruit, raisin grapes and figs, untouched by the frost.

During his stay, Capt. Fleming had the pleasure of a trip into the mountains, with a party that filled four machines. They traveled 25 miles to reach a point where the snow was a foot deep on the level, and had a splendid outing, building snow figures, and rollicking all day in the snow. He says he feels as though he had been enjoying a short visit in his old home in Illinois.

Postoffice Is Seeking Mail Messenger Here

Notices calling for bids for a contract messenger to transfer the mails back and forth from the Glendale postoffice to the Southern Pacific station are posted in the lobby of the local office, and they will be identified as Route No. 276,402. This is a good permanent job for someone, according to Postmaster D. Ripley Jackson, and it should entail the use of a light truck as parcel post pouches also must be transported.

DUBLIN, Feb. 24.—At a meeting of the Dail cabinet this afternoon, Michael Collins opposed giving the British cabinet an explanation of the agreement reached between hostile factions in the Ard Fheis (Sinn Fein organization). ## NEW PHONES HERE LEAD COAST CITIES

Burbank in Glendale District
First for Percentage, 1921
Tabulation Shows

Telephone tabulation for the year 1921 shows that Glendale leads in the installation of new phones among cities having 1000 or more connections.

This information was received by Fred Deal, local manager, today in the current issue of The Pacific Telephone Magazine and it was pleasing for him to note, also, that Burbank, which is in the class of 1000 or less phones, still maintains the highest percentage of increase.

On January 1, 1921, Glendale boasted of 2901 telephones and one year later it showed 3663, or a net gain of 762. This is a 26.27 increase.

Burbank had 456 connections the first of 1921 and 589 twelve months later, showing a net gain of 133 or 29.17 per cent. Certainly, this is indicative of the growth of the sister communities and Van Nuys, which is in the same district, is outstripped only by Dinuba and Anaheim.

As a result of the phenomenal growth of telephone business in the San Fernando valley it is expected that exchanges will be installed at Lankershim and Owensmouth under Manager Deal's supervision.

With more than $125,000 improvements either under way or contemplated in this vicinity by the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company, there seems to be no question but what Glendale will maintain the high standing among the leading cities of the coast.

$10,000 FIXTURE PLANT PLANNED

R P McMullen and H. D. Van
Heuklyn Purchase Milford Street Site for Factory

Purchase of property at corner of Milford and Commercial street in the San Fernando road industrial district for the announced purpose of establishing a cabinet and fixture factory was made known today.

Robert P. McMullen of 3845 Seneca avenue, well known here as a contractor and builder in days past, and Harvey D. Van Heuklyn of Los Angeles, who are now employed by the Weber Show case and Fixture company of Los Angeles, are said to be the principals and the firm name will be the Pacific Cabinet and Fixture company.

Ten thousand dollars will be spent in the installation of the first unit which will include a mill building for the housing of special machinery necessary in the manufacture of the store and office fixtures such as are required in equipping modern places of business being opened in this vicinity.

While Glendale has several mills which are turning out special jobs, it is believed by Messrs. Van Heuklyn and McMullen that their plant will meet a need here for their chosen line of work. Both are experienced cabinet makers and understand the installation and selling ends of the business, thus assuring them of a large measure of success from the start.

Production from this new factory will be placed on the market within the next thirty days and about six families will be supported by its earnings from the start. Increases will be made as rapidly as the business justifies, it is stated.

DEPOT PHOTOGRAPH SENT PRESIDENT OF S. P. LINES

Dr. Harrower Gives Sproule Idea as to Just What Glendale Has—Not

Seeing is believing!

Dr. Henry R. Harrower has forwarded a photograph of Glendale's depot to William Sproule, president of the Southern Pacific system, at San Francisco with the following letter, which denies the fact that the most profitable and progressive railroad is unable to afford "the fastest growing city in America," a station representative of 30,000 people here:

"My Dear Mr. Sproule: I thought perhaps you would like a photograph to adorn your offices and so I have had one made of our depot here in Glendale, not merely so that you and your assistants may have an opportunity to note its architectural elegance and fitness, but also that by some possible chance it may prick the conscience of your board of directors."

Despite the fact that the name of our city, Glendale, only appears in very recent issues of your timetables and in practically no maps which you publish, it is now a real city and not by any means the kind of a place that the depot indicates to all who might pass it.

Tells of City's Growth

"The population of Glendale is closer to 30,000 than to 25,000 and according to very careful estimates based upon figures secured by the public Service Department, which serves both the electric light and water consumers, the population is growing at the rate of approximately 650 persons a month; and even though you and your board of directors should decide to replace the inadequate structure with a suitable one very soon, the population will then probably be between 35,000 and 40,000."

In view of the fact that you like to advertise the merits and progressive character of the Southern Pacific System, I cannot but believe that this evidence—the letter and picture before you—may appropriately serve the purpose for which it has been prepared and sent."

This letter follows action taken at the Chamber of Commerce forum dinner a week ago over which Dr. Harrower presided.

E. Will Richardson and Helen Fletcher Wed by Judge Emery

In his official capacity as justice of the peace the first wedding ceremony at which Owen Emery officiated took place yesterday afternoon, February 23, 1922, at 1:30 o'clock, in Hollywood, when E. Will Richardson, son of Mrs. Ella Richardson of 217 North Brand boulevard, and Miss Helen Fletcher of 999 North Hobart boulevard were married at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. Emery and Mr. Richardson were boyhood chums in Glendale and again during the war when both for a time were stationed at Camp Lewis.

The wedding was just a simple home ceremony and was attended by relatives and a few intimate friends. The bride wore her traveling suit. Johnny Richardson, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. The ceremony was followed by a beautifully appointed wedding breakfast.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Will Richardson will be dinner guests tonight at the home of Mrs. Ella Richardson and will leave in the morning on a honeymoon trip to Kings City, where they will visit Mr. Richardson's sister, Mrs. Shives Mitchell. Upon their return, Mr. and Mrs. Richardson will make their home on a ranch at Lankershim, where a cozy bungalow home has been fitted up.

Ruth Nicholson and Arthur W. Dods Wed

The Glendale friends of Miss Ruth Nicholson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Nicholson, who was a former resident of this city and attended Glendale Union high school, will be interested to learn of her marriage on Wednesday, February 15, 1922, at Vancouver, B. C., to Arthur W. Dods. Mr. Dods belongs to one of the oldest families in Victoria and is a prominent newspaper man. Mr. and Mrs. Dods will make their home in that city. Miss Sadie L. Nicholson, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid.

Disgust Expressed at Rail Board's Justice

"Why spend money to fight a case before the railroad commission when there is no chance to get justice?" Such was the answer to City Attorney Bert P. Woodard by Councilman Dwight Stephenson, also an attorney, when the former asked if the council wished to be represented at the hearings of electric and gas rates scheduled to come before the commission soon.

It was apparent that others present were equally disgusted with the rail board's bagatelle of bonehead business.

Opportunity Offered to Ask Casa Verdugo Folks Into Glendale

Barton Joseph and others petitioned the city council for the elimination of a ditch on Stocker street between San Rafael and Columbus avenue.

It was all very nicely done and the council accommodated Alex Mitchell in a similar request to clear the dirt off of Kenneth Road, but City Clerk A. J. Van Wie was requested to write a letter to the petitioners stating that as much as the work was outside of the city limits, the county of Los Angeles would have to attend to it.

An invitation to annex the Casa Verdugo section to Glendale will be included in the letter.

CHINESE MURDER STORY CREDITED

Facts Revealed Taylor Battled Dope Ring; Mabel Normand in Critical Condition

DETROIT, Mich., Feb. 24.—Rent receipts found in the pockets of Harry N. Fields, jail inmate here, prove that he was in Los Angeles the night of the murder of William Desmond Taylor and not in Chicago, Sheriff Irving J. Coffin said today.

Sheriff Coffin declared the receipts almost nullified the effect of stories that Fields had made a deposit in a bank in Chicago on February 3, and therefore could not have been in Los Angeles when the murder was committed.

"I think the bank deposit stories will be disregarded in the hunt for the slayer as a result of the papers," Sheriff Coffin said. He wired his discovery to Los Angeles.

Mabel's Condition Critical

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 24.—The condition of Mabel Normand, film star, ill from influenza aggravated by her nervous breakdown following the murder of William Desmond Taylor, was described as "grave and critical" by her physicians at her secluded temporary home in Altadena today. Instead of showing improvement, it was stated, Miss Normand lost strength during the night. Two nurses are in constant attendance.

While a decisive test was being given the "confession" of Harry N. Fields, in jail at Detroit, who says a Chinese named Wong Lee was the slayer of William D. Taylor, District Attorney Woolwine today began an investigation of the story that Taylor fought a "dope" gang to save a woman he is said to have loved, a struggle which, according to the latest theory in the case, resulted in the murder.

Woolwine ordered his new investigation because of the startling announcement by Assistant United States District Attorney Tom Green that Taylor had obtained the aid of federal officers in his fight on the narcotic ring.

DRY RAIDERS GET $150,000 IN WINES

20,000 Gallons Stuff Seized;
Giovanni Gai and Victor
Campanella Jailed

Twenty thousand gallons of real wine were confiscated yesterday in the Gai Winery, San Fernando Road and Doran street, Glendale, by prohibition agents, led by S. H. Wheeler and F. A. Hazeltine, and as a result Giovanni Gai and Victor Campanella are now in the county jail.

The capture included, it is reported, 50 gallons of moonshine brandy, 50 puncheons each holding 160 gallons of claret on which the federal tax had been paid, 49 puncheons containing 160 gallons of claret wine on which the tax had not been paid, and 1800 gallons of sherry. Most of this wine was made during 1921.

The raid followed an investigation of activities at the winery which has been under suspicion for some time. Agents paid $200 in marked money a few days ago for a delivery of both wine and brandy.

That the winery has been doing a land office business with the importation of the prohibition enforcement department following the raid. The property is said to be worth not less than $150,000. They have been observing Giovanni Gai for some time as he is well known in this region as a winemaker.

PEARSON PROUD OF CITY

Isaac A. Pearson of 415 West Vine street, who represents the Miller-Cummings company, shippers of cantaloupes, and which has headquarters in New York City, returned yesterday afternoon from the eastern metropolis. The shipping point of this company is in the Imperial Valley. Mr. Pearson states that all along the way that whenever the name "Glendale" was mentioned people informed him that they had heard of it as being the fastest growing city in America, and that he took considerable pride in telling them that he was a resident of this city.

'GO AHEAD!' POLICY OF COUNCIL ON IMPROVEMENTS

Representatives of Brand and San Fernando Associations to Give and Get Co-operation

Stepping on the accelerator of the municipal machine last night, the city council looked favorably upon proposals of the Brand Boulevard Improvement association and the San Fernando Boulevard Improvement association.

In turn, the council asked these civic bodies, including the Chamber of Commerce, to assist the city in immediately obtaining a $125,000 bond issue for the establishment of a municipal bus line between here and Los Angeles.

"We are in dead earnest about this matter," Mayor Robinson told Charles B. Guthrie, Mattison B. Jones and G. H. King, representing the Brand boulevard people and the Chamber of Commerce, who were present to push the paving program south of Colorado.

Looking Up Laws

Legal phases of lowering the Pacific Electric tracks and improving its right-of-way, also the type of paving to be used are matters for investigation at once. In the official minutes of the council will be found other improvements suggested by Mr. Guthrie and his committee, but they are beyond the point of present proceedings.

Mr. Jones presented the council with 25 names selected by the executive committee of the sewage disposal mass meeting held several weeks ago, from which eight will be selected to work with the 12 present members of the city's sewer committee.

W. Griffin, president, and L. H. Wilson, secretary, of the San Fernando Boulevard Improvement association, filed their petition of property owners, representing 3900 feet of frontage, asking for the installation of three globe light standards between Los Feliz Road and Pacific avenue on San Fernando boulevard.

This same committee also presented a petition for the repair of a chockhole at San Fernando and Park avenue. Both petitions were referred to the city engineer for checking with the council favoring the improvements.

For a third time the city will advertise for bids for the improvement of the northeast corner of San Fernando and Brand boulevards and unless more competition is evidenced in the matter of street work, Councilman S. A. Davis declares he will resign and go into the contracting business.

Dr. Henry Harrower Leaves on Lecturing Trip to East Coast

Dr. Henry R. Harrower of 1510 East Broadway left early last night for Chicago where he will commence a lecture tour of a month's duration and extending to the Atlantic coast. His subject will be glandular therapy with special reference to "Internal Secretions."

Northwestern University Chicago will be the scene of Dr. Harrower's first lecture which will be delivered Monday. He will go immediately to New York City where he is scheduled to speak to a group of physicians at the Belvedere Hotel on the first of March. While in this city he will pay his respects to the New York office of the Harrower Laboratory.

After stopping in Melrose, Massachusetts, Dr. Harrower will go to Boston, where he will speak at the Hotel Lenox, and then to Providence, Rhode Island. On his return trip he will lecture at Albany and Buffalo, New York, Battle Creek Sanitarium, Michigan, Milwaukee, Wisconsin and at the Baltimore Hotel, Kansas City.

Fred Gillham Takes Jane Howe as Bride

The Elsa-Jane Realty company, which was recently established by Mrs. Elsa McClellan and Miss Jane Howe at 1503 South Brand boulevard, has received numerous telephone calls for the latter during the week. She will return in a few days as Mrs. Fred Gillham.

Miss Howe and Mr. Gillham, who recently came to Glendale from New Mexico and is now a salesman with the local Oakland agency, were quietly married Tuesday night at the Glenwood Mission Inn at Riverside and are now on their honeymoon trip. Mrs. Gillham will continue in the realty business.

Frank Walker Gets Jury's Vindication

Frank Walker, a patrolman employed by a private agency, was acquitted by a jury here late last evening on the charge that he took oil and supplies from a local garage. The case was heard in Police Judge F. H. Lowe's court, starting at 10 a. m. Mr. Walker considers the verdict as complete vindication of the allegation that he betrayed a client's trust.

than concerns in the field can handle at the present and with our two-year program of improvements there should be plenty of chance to get a few jobs," he concluded.

The next round in the battle for the installation of a municipal bus line will be fought on March 2, according to C. D. Gulick, city traffic expert, who announced this morning that this date has been fixed by the Public Utilities Commission of Los Angeles for its hearing of Glendale's petition for permission to traverse certain streets of the metropolis.

Mr. Gulick and others appeared before the board yesterday and called attention to the fact that the Hollywood rate hearing has been postponed until March 20th by the State Railroad Commission. In view of this fact he requested the board to reconsider its decision to delay action until after this hearing. Mr. Gulick explained that the people of Glendale did not consider the Hollywood case was any of their business. He asserted that the city council was determined to give its constituents a bus line if possible, provided public opinion continued to demand it.

Members of the board, it is said, received Mr. Gulick courteously, but coldly and, he believes they will give Glendale's petition earnest consideration only when confronted by representatives of the leading civic bodies of Glendale.

Members of this board are Robert E. Wirsching, A. L. King, H. S. Payne, Walter R. Leeds and H. Z. Osborne, Jr.

Sophomores-Juniors Divide Casaba Honors

The Junior-Sophomore game of the girls' inter-class basketball at the high school was played off Wednesday, with a victory for the First Junior team and the Second Sophomore team. In the final game, Thursday, between the Seniors and Freshmen, the Seniors came off victors. The first team, of which Lucile Nelson is captain, with a score of 12 to 8; the second team with Maurine Bettis, captain, 30 to 12. This was the hardest game in which the Seniors have contended for honors, but they now have the championship, as they were not defeated once during the entire schedule. The Juniors have challenged them for an extra game, which is scheduled for next Tuesday.

SAY PASTOR NOT GUILTY

NEW YORK, Feb. 24.—After a "trial" which extended into the early morning hours, during which women became hysterical and left, Rev. Dr. George Caleb Moer was given a vote of confidence by his congregation at the Madison Avenue Baptist church. Mrs. Jessie W. Day, who brought charges against her pastor, was expelled from the church by a vote of 64 to 43. She immediately announced her intention to appeal the case of her dismissal to the Baptist convention.

War Mothers Plan Old-Fashioned Tea, Also Rummage Sales

The regular semi-monthly business and social meeting of the local chapter of the War Mothers of America was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Samuel Dick of 309 North Louise street. The gathering was originally scheduled to take place at the residence of Mrs. Ella Richardson of 317 North Brand boulevard.

After a lengthy discussion the ladies decided to conduct an old-fashioned "silver tea" at Mrs. Richardson's home on Wednesday afternoon, March 8, the proceeds to go to the general working fund of the organization. The affair will be staged immediately following a short business session which will be held on that date and will consist of a program of speeches and musical selections. Mrs. George Hastings and Mrs. F. A. Wells of the financial committee will be in charge of the program.

Announcement was made during the afternoon regarding the first of a series of monthly "rummage" sales, which is to be conducted by the chapter in their bungalow at 221 West Broadway on Saturday, March 4. Anyone desiring to make donations of dishes, clothing, furniture or other useful second-hand articles for the purpose of making this event a success is requested to get in touch with either Mrs. J. M. Cowlin (Glendale 1324-J), or Mrs. J. B. Sherwood (Glendale 1173-J).

Mrs. Flora Pixley was taken into the local chapter at Thursday's meeting.

Casa Verdugo Church Ladies Serve Dinner

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Casa Verdugo Methodist church held a celebration last night in honor of the completion of the basement rooms of the new building, and served a delicious, hot, four-course dinner to approximately 250 persons. The tables were decorated with acacia blooms, and pictures of Washington and numerous flags gave a Colonial effect to the rooms. The president, Mrs. J. W. Cotton, was very ably assisted by Mrs. George Tyrell, Mrs. L. F. Drake, Mrs. L. C. Blakney, Mrs. Gertrude Kinnear, Mrs. Oliver Logan, Mrs. O. E. Goets, Mrs. Mary Bettis, and other members of the society. Mrs. E. E. Masters was in charge of the dining room, assisted by the young ladies of the Epworth League.

COMMENT THAT'S ALL

Better Buy Another Lot!
Blackmail, a Gentle Art
After Voice of Suburbs Service Seeks Opportunity

—By Gil A. Cowan—

ASTERNEERS, who are now westerners, your attention for a moment.

You have read about the snow-storms sweeping the north and middle west during the last 24 hours and you know what that means. Now here is a sight which was seen on the streets of Glendale last night, February 23, if you please: A family party in an open automobile were eating ice cream cones. The children were bareheaded, the others in the party sans wraps. There is little need for comment other than California may have its snow—in the mountains; and its chilly hours for a few days—but it has its sunshine and balmy breezes that make it the one spot in the world to actually live.

Better buy a lot today for the home your brother, mother or son eventually will have when the east freezes over each winter.

Another theory in the Taylor murder may be exploded. Harry Fields, or whatever his name may be, who confessed complicity in the killing in a rather interesting statement at Detroit yesterday, was known to have been a "hophead" in police parlance, and little credence can be given his allegations that he was shot the film director until he finds the gun. However, it would seem that these stories will have one effect and that is to cause the real slayer to boast a bit—for they always do. And when the truth is known, there is every reason to believe it was the work of a blackmailer be he yellow or white.

Blackmail is a gentle art usually, and practiced among the best of families as you will notice in the Washington dispatches. It is the easiest form of earning an idle living and a lot less risky than highway robbery.

Outside of confidence games, market "swindles" and horseracing there are few professions a crooked gentleman would rather follow. And it may be that some rough worker, who had learned the secrets of Taylor's past, made the fatal misstep.

In today's issue of The Glendale Evening News a big idea is expounded by Wyllys Abbot of Venice. He seeks to have the forum of the City Club in Los Angeles as a clearing house for problems concerning the welfare of the suburban communities.

The thirty members of that organization who are residents of Glendale should embrace this opportunity and see to it that "the fastest growing city in America" is well represented.

Mr. Abbot is to be commended on the practicality of his suggestion and may be successful in getting the voice of the county at large through his fellow clubmen.

Community Service was expounded before the Rotarians here yesterday at their weekly lunch. Among other things H. W. Arbury told them was the fact that Community Service cannot stand alone. It is the united effort of Rotary clubs, Chambers of Commerce, Kiwanis clubs, Women's clubs, schools, churches and every other organization looking toward the civic, moral and mental welfare of the community.

George Karr, who came here recently from Parsons, Kans., told what it had done for his home folks. True, it is new and an outgrowth of the war, but it is something that Glendale can afford to find out more about and give it an opportunity to accomplish what it may.

Received a letter of appreciation from a "flu" victim who reviewed the good old days down in Virginia during the war, after reading the comment on the Roma disaster. Here's hoping that the sick people who see this will accept my sympathy for I had the delightful days and nights that went with the 1918 model of the epidemic at Walter Reed general hospital, U. S. A., at Washington, D. C. If you wish to recover rapidly, take your time, is a fitting comment.

Prisoner Who Fears Verdict Falls Dead

BERLIN—Fear of death has killed a prisoner at the Berlin Criminal court.

Franz Hoppe, a business man was charged with murdering and robbing a woman resident of Konigswesthausen. While the jury gave their verdict in the absence of the prisoner, in accordance with German custom, Hoppe eagerly listened from his cell close by. He thought he heard the words, "We find the accused guilty of murder!"

Hoppe was brought into court and stood, pale and trembling, as the Judge began: "You are found guilty of—"

At that moment Hoppe murmured, "I know" and fell dead.

Glendale Gets 347th Ambulance Company

Glendale is to have the 347th ambulance company in the skeleton division of the Reserve army to be organized in the Los Angeles area, according to a detailed statement made by Lieut.-Col. H. R. Richmond, U. S. A. He has headquarters at 527 Story building, Los Angeles, and is seeking competent officers to man the various companies in case of a crisis. Nothing will be done about the enlisted personnel for the present, except for specialists who will be afforded fifteen days' training each year, it is said.

Opening Sale--Seventh Unit at FAIRVIEW Large Lots As Low As $394 UP TO $665—NONE HIGHER

A cash down payment as low as $25, and monthly payments from $10 to $15 per month will secure your lot in this beautiful tract.

The preopening of the SEVENTH unit of Fairview last Sunday resulted in people coming from far and near and selecting more than one-third of the homesites offered.

Fairview is located on a beautiful slope in the famous Northwest section of Glendale, one block from the P. E. car line and about one-half mile from the magnificent estate of L. C. Brand.

For desirability Fairview lots must not be confused with any other subdivision. They are not low, or damp; they have good drainage, rich, sandy loam soil, close to the new Grand View School, stores, churches, etc., and yet priced so low they will astonish you for this class of property.

No district or values like this in all Glendale. Come out and see for yourself.

Don't waste your money paying rent; buy a lot, put up a temporary home 50 ft. back from the street, and live in it at once.

An immense development is taking place at Fairview, over sixty homes have been built by our purchasers, and lots in the first unit are already selling for $200 more than they cost a few months ago.

Neighboring lots are being sold at from $825 to $1450, but we do not believe in asking the highest price for this beautiful property; we want our purchasers to make money and it is a source of great satisfaction to us that resales in our earlier units are showing handsome profits in so short a time.

The lots in this seventh unit are selling fast. Don't delay. Come out today or come out Sunday if you can't before.

Drive out West Broadway and San Fernando Road to Vine Avenue; then one block up to tract headquarters at Vine Avenue and Fourth Street. Our cars will leave 203 West Broadway at 10 o'clock Sunday morning, and 2 o'clock p. m.

WITH TOM CAT TRANSFER

"Eddie" Hambley of 1517 1/2 South San Fernando Road says that he is an "ex-service man" as far as the Glendale Fire Department is concerned. He has converted his Maxwell into a delivery truck and joined the Tom Cat Transfer company of 103 West Broadway. On account of the fact that he has so many friends in this vicinity, Mr. Hambley is certain that he will make a success of his new enterprise.

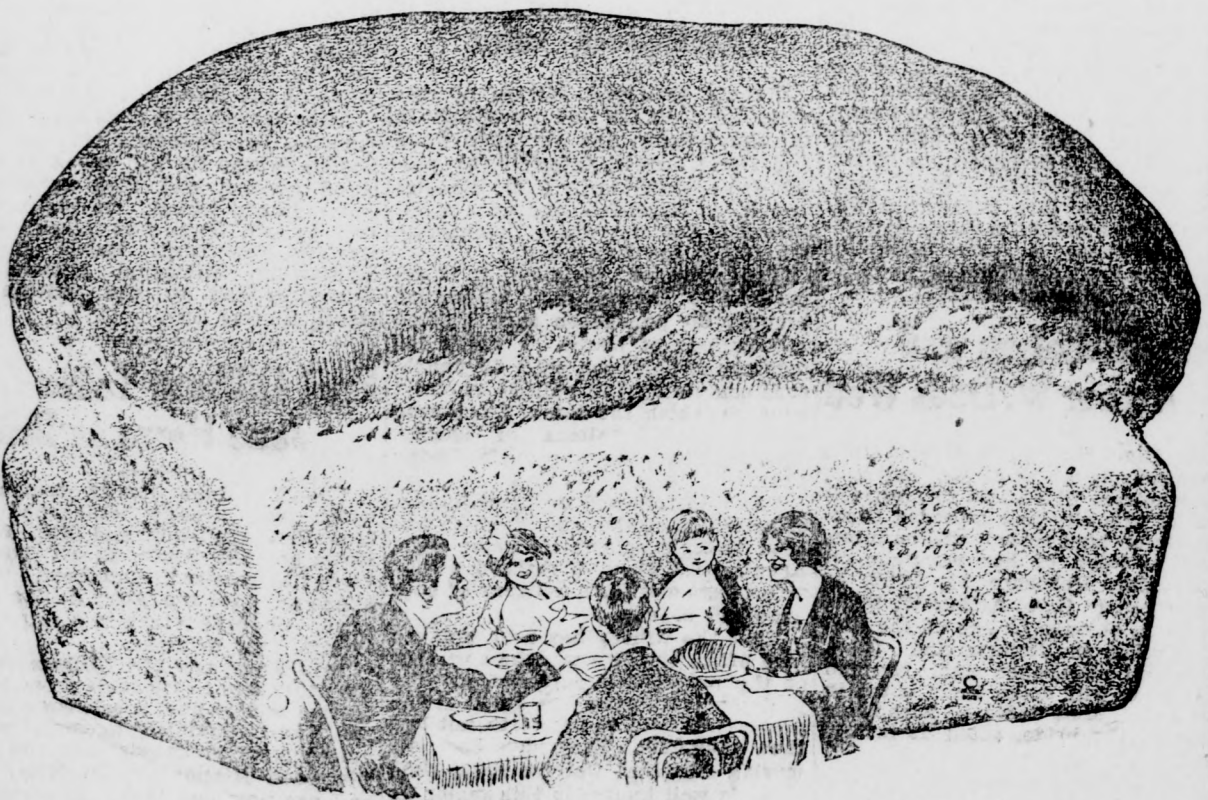

Even when a man admits that he is a sinner it isn't safe to agree with him.

OFFICES FOR SANITARIUM

A new addition that is under way at the Glendale Sanitarium is fast nearing completion, the estimated cost being about $300, which will relieve the present crowded condition somewhat. It will be divided into four rooms, all of which are on the first floor—one for the manager, C. E. Kimlin; one for the accountant, another for the stenographer and a waiting room.

131 LOTS SOLD IN DAY, SAYS REPRESENTATIVE OF GLENDAL E MANOR

What do you think of 131 lots being sold in one day?

Mr. Bowen, representing Dickinson & Gillespie with offices at the R. L. Kent company, 136 South Brand boulevard, states that is their record for last Sunday.

Approximately 400 lots have been sold and few remain in the former ranch home of Harrington
W. Brown, former Los Angeles postmaster. In the form of Glendale manor it has become an excellent residential section south of this city.

Alfred Kastner, Famed Harpist, Featured Attraction on Tonight's Program

Glee clubs of Glendale Union High School will give their annual concert tonight in the high school auditorium at 8 o'clock.

Alfred Kastner of London, virtuoso harpist with the Los Angeles Philharmonic orchestra will be the soloist at the occasion while J. Ezra Meeker, director of the glee clubs, will be the vocal soloist.

Mr. Kastner is one of the best harpists in the world, according to Mr. Meeker. He has appeared in concerts all over Europe. In London he was harp soloist of the Queen's Hall Concerts, principal harpist of the Cove Garden Opera and professor of the Royal Academy of Music. At one time he was a professor of music at the Budapest Royal Academy.

Demostriates Talent
There was much elation in local musical circles last fall when the acceptance of Mr. Meeker to a position upon the faculty of Glendale Union
High School was announced. Mr.
Meeker now spends a portion of each week in this community. He is known throughout the west as a concert singer. As director of the glee clubs, he has been much pleased with the spirit and talent demonstrated by members of the high school music department. He feels that the concert tonight will be quite worth while as it will give the glee clubs an opportunity to show their training.

"The young people are doing as good work as I have ever been able to find around here," stated Mr.
Meeker. "They have all worked hard and are interested in their work.
The concert will be a fine illustration of what can be done by high school glee clubs. The program extends over all classes of music from classical down to popular ballads."

Numbers on Program
Two groups of selections will be played by Mr. Kastner. The first will consist of Mendelssohn's "Songs Without Words" and "Impromptu Cyprus" by G. P. P. and the second will be composed of two numbers: "First Arabesque" by Debussy and "At the Fountain" by F. Zabel.

Two group songs will be sung by Mr. Meeker. The first two will be "Vision Fugitive" from "Herodiade" by Massenet and "The Toreador Song" from "Carmen" by Bizet. The second group will consist of "Vale"
by Russell, "My Menagerie" by Fay Hester, "Sylvia" by Oley Speaks and
"The Dance" by Chadwick.

The girls' glee club in the first part of the program will sing "Dance of the Pine Tree Fairies" by Forman, "Irish Love Song" by Lang,
"June Rhapsody" by Daniels and
"Big Brown Bear" by Mana-Zucca.

In the last half they will sing "Deep River" by Burleigh, "La Serenata" by Tosti and "The Rosary" by Nevin.

The boys' glee club in the first half of the concert will sing "Long Ago in Egypt" by Lehman, "Song of the Sea" by Handel and "Tinker's Song" by DeKoven. In the last half they will sing "De Coppah Moon" by Nevin, "There, Little Girl, Don't cry" by Westendorf and "Danny Deever" by Danaboch.

The girls' and boys' glee clubs will join in the singing of the "Bridal Chorus" from "The Rose Maiden" by Cowen for a finale.

Debating Tryouts at High School Planned

Voltaire Perkins, debating coach and instructor at the Glendale High school, will conduct a series of tryouts during the next two weeks for the purpose of selecting the leading quartet of youthful orators who will represent the Red and Black institution in the coming league debate with San Diego high. The southerners are considered one of the strongest teams in the league and Mr. Perkins is taking every precaution to prepare his charges for a real battle of words.

The argument, the subject of which has not yet been named, will take place on or about the 20th of April and will probably be the means of deciding the interscholastic championship of southern California. The present plan is to hold both sections of the debate on the same date, with each negative team debating in its home school.

Among the candidates for the Glendale team who will attempt to make a place on the squad are Victor Colburn, Paul Hutchinson, Kathleen Campbell, George Jordan, Isabel Sierwood and Harold Majors.

Last of Heavyweight Basketball Games

The heavyweight basketball players of the Glendale high school will play their last game of the season this afternoon on the local court when they will be pitted against Pat Dougherty's Franklin high quintet in a game that will decide third place honors in the Central league race. Both schools are ancient rivals on the athletic field and today's contest is expected to attract the customary crowd of enthusiastic rooters.

TIE-UP THREATENING IN ANTHRACITE MINE FIELDS

April 1 May See Industry at Standstill, Due to New Wage Demands

By GEORGE W. WILLIAMS.
Written for International News Service
WILKES-BARRE, Pa., Feb. 24.---Not since 1902, when the anthracite industry was almost completely tied up by a six months' strike of the United Mine Workers of America, has the hard coal fields faced a situation fraught with greater danger of industrial stagnation than at present. Dangerous as the situation really is, there is back of it, nevertheless, the deep-rooted belief that peace is not impossible and that April 1 may see no closing down of the anthracite mines.

Anthracite operators are not talking strike. Neither are the United Mine Workers of America. Yet each side is preparing for emergency. Neither will say that a strike will not come, nor will they admit that a suspension is a certainty. While there has come an open break between the bituminous men and their employers, a like situation does not exist in the anthracite. Hard-coal miners and operators will at least go into a conference. While the time and place of such conference has not yet been fixed it is a certainty that formal meetings will be held.

Men Want More Pay
There is a difference---perhaps so big as to be a stumblingblock for peace---over the terms of a new agreement. The United Mine Workers have written into a tentative set of demands the terms under which they are willing to negotiate a new contract. Chief of these is the question of wages, a 20 per cent increase on the top basis where a miner is paid on the amount of coal he handles and a flat increase of one dollar per day for men paid on the daily basis. On this point the operators have fixed nothing definite in the way of a wage scale, but they do maintain that for public benefit and in the interest of the industry there must be downward revision of the pay rates. The companies have promised to pass along any downward revision to the consumer, meaning cheaper fuel.

Boiled down, the anthracite situation is just this: The men are asking 20 per cent above their present contract. The operators will demand a reduction in what they term "war-time rates." President John L. Lewis, of the United Mine Workers, has declared, "There must be no step backward!" The companies are claiming such a step is necessary.

Preparation for Worst
As the situation draws to the point where cards must be laid on the

The Automobile Tire company's branch store at 211 South Brand boulevard is now under the management of R. B. Tapp, who has recently come here from Wichita, Kan., and has been connected with the tire industry for several years at that place. He was originally with the Goodrich branch and later with the Midco Tire company, whose factory is located there. Mr. Tapp's present connection with the Automobile Tire company gives him the opportunity to live up to the belief that the very best of tire service, courteous treatment and a complete stock of standard and light quality tires to choose from are what the people of Glendale want. Mr. Tapp is going to make his home in this city and is very enthusiastic over the progress that Glendale is making.

table, there comes to light in many ways evidence of a preparation for the worst. The Hudson Coal company, with a large number of collieries, has started the building of a large trained police force. Leon Pitcher, the highest-priced police chief Wilkes-Barre ever had, has joined the company forces and will be in charge of its police. Generally there goes on a steady work of preparation to meet any emergency. Among the men is a silent preparation to meet any situation that may arise. Business depression has not set in on a large scale, but sufficiently large to indicate that the miner and his family are careful with their money, and free spending has been considerably curtailed.

AMERICANS SHIRK RESPONSIBILITY TO INDIANS; CALIFORNIA TRIBES HAVE BEEN EXPLOITED BY WHITES

Miss Hope Elizabeth Haupt, Delegation Now in Washington Who Spoke Here Last Night, to Obtain Small Settlement for Broken Treaties Tells Their Story

Known as "The Missionary to the White People" because she has made it her life work to serve as an official interpreter of the Indians of this continent, Miss Hope Elizabeth Haupt, who has spent seven years in actual contact with various tribes, Wednesday night at the Baptist church and later at St. Mark's Episcopal church paid high tribute to the American Indians.

"Americans are shirking their responsibility to the Indians, largely because of their ignorance concerning them," stated Miss Haupt in an interview. "Very few realize that the red race is gaining in the United States. There are as many Indians here now as there were when Columbus discovered America. The Indian population now numbers about 275,000. There have been 10,000 more Indian births than deaths during the last ten years."

"Few Christians realize that the pagans among them are in the majority, only about two out of every ten being Christianized. The converts are about equally divided between the Catholics and Protestants."

Exploited in California
"In California I have found an appalling state of affairs. The Indians have been exploited, defrauded and neglected by the federal government, by the state and by the church. Yet the reaction to that is the noblest effort of white man's land for redress of the wrongs, namely, the Indian Board of Co-operation with President David S. Barrows, of the University of California, heading the advisory committee."

"January 16, eight Indian chiefs and representing the 300 tribes and bands of California Indians, numbering about 20,000, left San Francisco for Washington, D. C., on the Sunset Limited, to ask of Congress fulfillment of the 70-year-old promises made them by the United States government in compensation for the lands ceded to the white man by the Indians."

"The special purpose of this expedition is to plead the cause of the California Indians in the matter of their Court of Claims Bill, which is soon to come up in the House of Representatives. This authorizes any tribes or bands of Indians to support their claims to the United States Court of Claims. It was introduced in both houses at the last session of the 66th Congress in February, 1920. It received the hearty co-operation of the notable Christian statesmen, Franklin K. Lane, Secretary of the Interior, and Cato Sells, Commissioner of Indian Affairs."

Claims Based on Treaties
"Indian claims in California are based on eighteen treaties by which the Indians were to have retained about 7,500,000 acres of land. They agreed to cede to the federal government this land and to receive in compensation goods amounting to about $1,800,000, schools and agricultural instruction. Not a cent's worth was ever supplied."

"The land was sold as public domain and the proceeds placed in the United States treasury. Some of it is the richest in the state, from which some of the great California fortunes have been won. The demands of the Indians are only reasonable. They ask compensation only on the value of the lands at the time they gave them up, running into millions, of course."

"The Indians themselves are financing the cost of sending their delegation east. By voluntary contributions the expenses amounting to $750 for each chief have been provided. Much of this money has come from Indians farming on a small scale, from day laborers, workers in lumber camps or in the hop fields."

Only Remnant Survives
"Of the 20,000 surviving Indians, remnant of the 210,000 at the time of the making of the treaties, there are about 5,000 living on small reservations, 11,000 in more or less comfort, and about 4,000 living in poverty and misery. Many of them have told me that they still hope the government will do what was promised their fathers."

"I have visited the Indians from the Clallams of northwestern Washington to the Seminoles of southern Florida. I am on my way to visit the wonderful Apaches and Navajos of our southwestern front. I want to visit the Alaska Indians this summer or next."

Landlording Costly, So Dukes May Quit

LONDON.—Several dukes and a large number of heads of other families are making arrangements to turn themselves, as landlords, into limited companies.

It is their last effort to retain their beautiful estates, which have been the pride of their families for generations.

Many of these companies will be in operation before April.

Seemingly these landed proprietors have at last discovered what other business men have long known that the tax-gatherer is much more lenient to the company than to the individual, and it is supposed, when the respective companies have been formed, that the landlord will himself take the great bulk of the shares, while his children and other family dependents will have shares in such proportion that the interest should yield them sums equal to their present allowances, as supplied to them now by the head of the family.

Lions and tigers kept in captivity require one day a week without food, to keep them in good health.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 24.—The perverse persistence with which murder will out and chickens come home to roost is being illustrated again in this instance by the California Indians. They are reaching around behind California's romantic chapter of gold-discovery and gold-rush history and bringing out the untold chapter, the dark, and it must be confessed, the shameful chapter. And they are bringing it out not with a malice-prepense-and-forethought vindictiveness, but rather in the form of "unfinished business." They are bringing it out because it is the foundation of their "case" by which they seek to establish their rights under unfulfilled treaties of which they ask settlement by the government—settlement after seventy years of waiting.

Eight on Mission
There are eight Indian delegates in Washington, come to look after the interests of the remaining 20,000 California Indians, and chosen, financed and sent here by their own people. Their mission, or, as they are more likely to call it themselves, their business here is to persuade Congress to pass their court of claims bill, designed to enable them to bring their plea for settlement before the United States Court of Claims and have it adjudicated just like any unpaid bill.

Not beaded and feathered and buckskinned Indians are these, not pictorial and story-book Indians, but a modern, tailor-made variety, to be remarked on Washington streets because of their western swing, the western spread and roll of their hats, brims, and their coppery, and it may be among the smiling, easy-going pale faces, their rather grim, set and saturnine expression.

The business settlement they are asking is of the eighteen treaties of 1851-2 by which they ceded all of California to the United States Government under the agreement that they were to have 7,500,000 acres reserved to them and receive about $1,800,000 worth of goods, cattle, implements, clothing and educational provision. They signed these treaties, the 400 chiefs and headmen of the 300 tribes and bands of California Indians putting their thumb-marks and crosses on the "dotted line." And they lived up to them; they kept their part of the agreement. But never, from that time to this have they received fulfillment of the treaties.

The story of the unfulfillment is the dark chapter, the shame and the tragedy behind the romantic story of "the days of old, the days of gold," that still give a thrill in song.

White Man Broke Promises
The eighteen treaties became the lost treaties to the California Indians. The solemnly signed papers of the white man were taken away—and the promises made in them, so clear in the Indian mind, never were kept, though the Indians waited as the years came and went, and their numbers dwindled.

They died numerous and miserably while they waited by "eviction, starvation and disease," it is officially admitted. They were pushed back, and back, and back, from whatever the white man wanted, until the rocks, the barren spots and the almost inaccessible mountain fastnesses were their refuge, and they did, indeed, fall so low in their struggle to survive that they ate wild roots and grasshoppers and lizards and angle-worms. In their stoic resignation and determination to persist, their old people refused to eat even of what they had—gave their share to the children, because "We have lived our lives; we can not be of use any more; but the children have their lives to live, and they must be given their chance."

Then California Recalled
After half a century of forgetfulness, neglect and abuse the people of California—a few here and there—and the government remembered, and by appropriations sought from Congress and aid from the Office of Indian Affairs some pressing emergencies of the California Indians and acute distress among them were met. Of the 20,000 Indians left in California there now are about 1,000 on reservations, about 11,000 living on severalty holdings called rancherias, maintaining themselves in more or less comfort—chiefly less—by cultivating their bits of land or working for wages when work is obtainable, or both. These rancherias are small tracts here and a few acres there bought by the Office of Indian Affairs for scattered groups of Indians, and in many cases the land is so worthless that it affords merely a place to stay, some of it not even being provided with water.

There is nothing unreasonable or upsetting in the settlement the Indians ask. They do not seek a return of the lands they were promised, nor to disturb titles, although some of the greatest fortunes in California were won from their lands. What they ask is practical and modest, only that they be given a money compensation based on the valuation of the lands at the time the treaties were made. It is stipulated in their court of claims bill that they shall not receive more than $1.22 an acre—not an unreasonable sum considering the long wait and the sufferings of the Indians.

IF KIDNEYS AND BLADDER BOTHER

Take Salts to Flush Kidneys and Neutralize Irritating Acids

Kidney and Bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted authority. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it often remains to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread, the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in voiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it, because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is really one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two or three days. This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs which then act normally again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Jad Salts is splendid for kidneys and causes no bad effects whatever.

Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink, which quickly relieves bladder trouble.—Advertisement.

GIFTS TO PRINCESS POURING IN BY EVERY MAIL

All English Wedding Planned for 'Mary'—Nation Shares in Preparation

By EDNA HUBER CHURCH.
Written for International News Service LONDON, Feb. 24.—It was George M. Colman who discovered that "Mary" is a grand old name and took it out of the ranks of ordinary nomenclature and gave it a bit of distinction, but even George M. himself couldn't add to the glory of the name of Mary in England these days. Everybody in Britain is talking about Mary and her wedding. It must be terrible to be a princess and be forced to have a wedding that belongs to the nation and isn't your very own.

Mary is certainly the darling of Britain and they are stumbling all over themselves to do her honor. It seems that her mail is stacked every day with requests that she accept wedding gifts, for you know it isn't quite proper to give a princess a gift unless you have asked her to accept it before you send the messenger boy trotting into Buckingham Palace.

Accepts Most of the Gifts
And the Princess is accepting most of the gifts, which run the gamut from silver shoes made by disabled soldiers to old relics of George the Third.

And, speaking of George the Third, he will be very well represented at this wedding which is coming on. No less than three of the bridesmaids will be direct descendants of the old gentleman, Princess Maud, daughter of the Princess Royal, Lady Victoria Mary Cambridge, daughter of the Marquis and Marchioness of Cambridge, and Lady May Cambridge, daughter of Princess Alice and the Earl of Athlone, are all direct descendants of George the Third, and Princess Mary herself has a double descent, through the King and the Queen.

And this matter of selection of the bridesmaids has made all England chuckle, too. The Princess Mary has selected an all-English bridal party, much to the satisfaction of those loyal Britons who rise and sing "Land of Hope and Glory" at the slightest provocation.

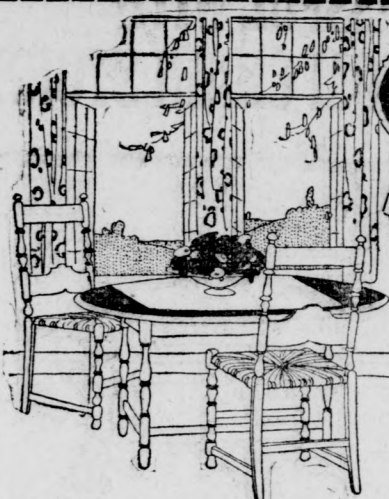

It's All British Now
It had been chatted about, you know, that the bridal party would include a number of European princesses, the Infanta Beatrice of Spain and Princess Marie-Jose of Belgium, for instance. Now all of that gossip is allayed and everyone is set for a real royal wedding, done English style.

London is going to take advantage of this wedding, too, for it will be the one high spot of the winter. There are grave doubts whether there will be any formal courts this year on account of the depressing industrial conditions.

It seems that an appearance at court is a considerable strain on the English pocketbook, and so long as strict economy is the rule with Britain the royal family will economize along with the rest of the folks. So everyone is going to make the most of the royal wedding.

29 ARE UNDER INDICTMENT

CHICAGO, Feb. 24.—Indictments charging conspiracy to operate a confidence game and obtain money under false pretenses were voted by the grand jury against Leslie Harrington, alleged "get-rich-quick wizard" and twenty-eight of his aides. Operations of Harrington and his associates were alleged to have defrauded thousands of Chicagoans of sums aggregating approximately one million dollars.

SEARCH FOR 'CAT EYE'

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 24.—Detectives declared today that the "maid" employed by Mrs. George C. McKay who chased her mistress into a closet at the point of a pistol and made off with jewels valued at $5,000 is none other than the "cat-eyed" maid of many aliases and a long criminal record now being sought by the California police.

"Cat-eye" gets her name from the fact that while one eye is brown the other is blue. She has served sentences at Joliet for Chicago robberies, and at the Columbus (Ohio) penitentiary. At present she is wanted in connection with an $11,000 robbery at Woodside, Cal., and another $20,000 robbery on the coast.

"Cat-eye's" real name is said to be Lillian Redmond.

L. A. HART VOICES OPTIMISM SEEN IN GLENDALE

Property Values Are Steadily Increasing, States Local Real Estate Dealer

L. A. Hart, of the Hart Realty company, makes the following statement concerning future prospects for business in Glendale: "A close study of conditions relative to any business is proper on the part of the party entering this business if ultimate success is expected. The real estate business is no exception. If we were to judge our future by the advice that we may receive from those whom we meet on the street from time to time, it is doubtful if we would be in a position to know our own mind regardless of the real facts as they stand out by close study of conditions.

Depression Is Over
"Such men as Mr. Dennison of the Dennison Tag company, come forth with the statement relative to the crisis in the east being over, and he refers to 1920 and 1921 as years of depression. Also statements from other sound business men of the east refer to the same condition and state that markets are steadily gaining and that all business is showing an upward trend, and the money market is steadier.

"In Glendale our records show no depression through 1920 and 1921 during the time the east has claimed a depression. Our building records in Glendale for January, 1922, are staggering in the face of our 1921 January record, which was an enviable record, to say the least.

"Now, at a time when the world is looking forward to more prosperous times, and we are backed by the government of the United States in our statement that we are the fastest growing city of its size in the United States, it behooves us to prepare ourselves for prosperity in all lines of business.

Stabilizing Business
"The real estate dealers of Glendale, as a whole, will agree with this statement that co-operative business methods and concerted action are doing more to stabilize this business than all the past efforts have attained in a scattered way. It may be possible that some of our so-called real estate brokers will feel a depression in the future more than they have in the past, owing to the fact that the public has learned to do the chase real estate the same as they have learned to purchase commodities of other lines. We have several reasons to believe, and our sales will back us up in this statement—that Glendale bids fair to show the largest building record for 1922 that has ever been experienced in its history, and this means more than five million dollars' building permits, to say the least.

Why Glendale Grows
"If Glendale is to continue its prosperous era, which it will, it behooves us all to pull together and prepare ourselves to give an intelligent reply to all questions pertaining to local conditions. The fact that Bill Jones has a tendency to differ with you and to offer no reason for his opinion, is no proof that conditions are as he might wish them to be. If you want to know why Glendale will continue to grow and be a prosperous city, second to none in southern California, outside of Los Angeles, bear in mind that it is the closest suburb of Los Angeles by direct boulevard and it is being benefitted by every improvement in Los Angeles such as the Second street tunnel and other contemplated boulevards out of Los Angeles. Also that California itself ranks eighth as a manufacturing state, and last but not least, thousands of people who now reside in the lower part of Los Angeles, have decided, as fast as conditions permit, to make their future home in the foothill sections, and Glendale will claim the majority of these prospective home-seekers.

"We are in need of substantial improvements that are not only being considered by our worthy city council and Chamber of Commerce, being backed by the Glendale Realty Board, but are going to have many of these improvements during the coming year.

"Property values are steadily increasing in view of the fact that the increasing population, which has averaged more than seven hundred people monthly during the past three years. People make values and Glendale is claiming more than its share of the increasing population of southern California."

J. A. DALEY SUCCESSFUL WITH ROCK BOTTOM CHAIN STORES

J. A. Daley, president of the Federal Grocery Co., directing his seven stores of warehouse and factory and 80 retail stores by intricate systems of telephones.

Experience As Newspaper Reporter and Attorney Gives Him Ability to Organize Great Business

The marvelous business ability demonstrated by J. A. Daley of Los Angeles in the development of Federal Grocery company is the cause of never-ending amazement on the part of Ben H. Wood, manager of the local Rock Bottom store at 133 South Central avenue.

Thousands of families in this vicinity are being served by the eighty chain stores operated by this organization. Despite the fact that prices are low enough to attract a large volume of business, dividends of between 20 and 25 per cent are paid to its stockholders. A little less than four years ago the concern was a defunct mail order house.

Quantity buying, careful seasonal and quality selection, splitting of fractions and minute attention to service have built up the Federal Grocery company to a position in the retail grocery field where it does a business of millions a year and has total assets valued at $603,149.35.

Manufacture Much
J. A. Daley, president of the company, has been so successful in the application of his principles that the concern has entered into the manufacturing end of the game. In one month it manufactured $50,000 worth of the products being sold in its Rock Bottom stores.

PRESIDENT HARDING CHAMPIONS ST. LAWRENCE WATERWAY PLAN

Access to Sea Cheapest and Surest Method of Transportation, He Says; Other Capital Notes

By U. S. Press Association.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 24.—There appears to be considerable of a swing of interest manifesting itself in Washington in the "deep waterways" project which has been agitated along the Great Lakes for many years. President Harding has entered the lists of champions of the St. Lawrence proposition, and he spoke of its advantages to the farmers of the wheat-growing states, when he addressed the farm conference recently. The president said:

"I have spoken of the advantages which Europe enjoys because of its access to the sea, the cheapest and surest transportation facility. In our own country is presented one of the world's most attractive opportunities for extension of the seaways many hundred miles inland. The heart of the continent, with its vast resources in both agriculture and industry, would be brought in communication with all the ocean routes by the execution of the St. Lawrence waterway project. To enable ocean-going vessels to have access to all the ports of the Great Lakes would have a most stimulating effect upon the industrial life of the continent's interior. The feasibility of the project is unquestioned, and its cost, compared with some other great engineering works, would be small."

Opposition to the St. Lawrence international deep waterways exists in New York, New England and Pennsylvania. Among the principal objections stated is a belief in those states that it would be a mistake to go with our ships through Canada. New York already has a start in providing an outlet to the sea, and there are ambitious plans that have been suggested for diverting the scheme so that vessels will eventually be brought from the Great Lakes across American territory, and so on to the sea. The St. Lawrence project is described by friends and opponents as about 50 per cent a power proposition.

Where Limitation is Unpopular

Nearly two thousand men have been discharged at the Washington Navy Yard, by order of the President. A thousand more have been dismissed at Newport News, Virginia, and the shipbuilding operations in connection with the navy have been cut down in various parts of the country. These orders are the first direct results of the Conference for the Limitation of Armament, which has started ten years' "naval holiday." The employees who have lost their positions have asked the Secretary of the Navy to "re-route government work" from private establishments to the government navy yards. They also advocate creating a government monopoly in the manufacture of arms and munitions of war. Naturally suggestions of this kind will meet with opposition of the same kind that has been able to defeat similar proposals in past years. "Limitation of armament" is decidedly unpopular right now in the shipbuilding plant.

"Uncle Joe" Will Retire

When Abraham Lincoln was being eulogized in the House of Representatives on his birthday anniversary, there sat in the Chamber as a member one who had been an associate and personal friend of the great Emancipator. That was Joseph G. Cannon, the veteran legislator from Illinois. While the ceremony was in progress, Mr. Cannon let it be known that he would not again be a candidate for Congress. He is now eighty-six years of age, and his family has prevailed upon him to recognize the fact that he is an old man, and should let the responsibilities and

Restrictions on Immigration Now Need Enforcement

By U. S. Press Association.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 24.—The commissioner general of Immigration recently made the following statement: "The government was 100 years old before any laws for immigration were made. About 1882, when the first restrictions were enacted, there were only four classifications for exclusion. 'Persons who were criminals, insane, diseased, and those who were likely to become a public charge were not admitted; while now there are thirty reasons for keeping immigrants out of the country.'"

The commissioner, with his thirty reasons, has found great difficulty in enforcing the law, and time and again the bars have been let down to admit immigrants to our shores who were brought here by steamship companies in plain violation of the existing laws. The Evening Star of Washington, says that immigration law enforcement "is more necessary now than ever as a result of the war. The people of Europe are in a state of deep unrest, and undesirable as well as desirables in the millions are figuring on new locations and easily become the prey of exploiters."

Care of office go to those who are more able to bear the burdens. "Uncle Joe" is perhaps the most beloved man in Washington, and the old animosities and rancor of his former political battles have been forgotten by reason of the sweetness of his manner in the closing years of his life.

Defines Foreign Debt

While Congress was engaged in creating a foreign debt funding bill, a Boston writer in the Stone & Webster Journal, furnished the illuminating information that "at the moment these foreign debts appear to be about as good an asset as corner lots in an undeveloped prairie town. Creditors are honorable nations and intend to pay us," the article continues, "just as soon as circumstances permit. But, apparently, circumstances are not going to permit anything like that in the immediate future. Our foreign creditors are all decidedly hard up as a result of circumstances over which they have had very little control. There was as much necessity on our part in lending the money as there was on their part in borrowing it. We cannot with safety force or attempt to force payment prematurely. This nation is in the same position as that of the other allied nations; to change the figure we must all hang together if we don't want to hang separately."

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 24.—Preparations for the second annual national convention of the Disabled American Veterans of the World War, which is to be held in this city June 26 to 30, inclusive, have been started under the auspices of three special committees; one from the local chapter of the Disabled Veterans organization, another appointed by Mayor James Rolph, Jr., representing the citizens of San Francisco, and a third committee named from the officials of the leading fraternal and civic organizations of California, all of whom are co-operating for the success of the coming conference. Headquarters have been opened at the St. Francis hotel here.

It is expected that 15,000 to 20,000 members of the Disabled Veterans' organization will be in attendance at the conference of next June, delegates and visitors coming to San Francisco from all parts of the United States, representing the 800 chapters and 100,000 members of the organization. ## NEW ANGEL FLOCK SEEMS TO NEED MORE SPEED

Wrigley Will Have to Wriggle Around for Players As Good As Last Year

By HOWARD M'GILLIS
Sporting Editor The Evening News
Although the Los Angeles baseball club of the Pacific Coast league will have numerous faces on its 1922 roster, it is the opinion of a majority of the team's followers that Bill Wrigley and his cohorts will have to "go a long ways" before they will be able to satisfactorily replace players of the caliber of those disposed of since last October. The 1921 players who will be especially missed during the coming summer months are Arnold "Twin Six" Stutz, Vic Aldridge, Art Reinhart, Oscar Stange and Bert Niehoff.

Stutz is placed at the top of the list because his absence will lessen the strength of the Seraphs' offense and defense to a greater extent than will that of all of the other four. It was his sudden "rejuvenation act" in the middle of last summer that seemed to spur the team on to the spirit which brought the flag to Washington Park. Stutz was without a doubt the best all-around and most valuable player who ever performed in the Coast league.

With the passing up to the majors of Aldridge and Reinhart, Manager Wade Killefer loses the two aces of last year's championship squad. The former led the pitchers in the entire league, while Reinhart was the most effective southpaw in the circuit. Their places will be taken by Jim York and Elmer Ponder, who come to Los Angeles from the Chicago Cubs in part payment for Stutz.

Stange's place as first string catcher apparently lies between Tom Daly and Wheat, both of whom are major league veterans. The problem of finding a suitable successor to Bert Niehoff, who was the most versatile infielder on the club during the past few seasons, is proving to be a more difficult task. Niehoff has signed a contract to manage the Mobile club in the Southern league for 1922.

Jim Thorpe with Portland

With the renowned Carlisle Indian athlete, Jim Thorpe, appearing with the Portland club in the Coast league during the coming season, it is estimated that the drawing power of the Beavers will be increased from 10 to 15 per cent over that of last season. Thorpe is regarded by many as the greatest all-around athlete of all time and his mere presence on a team's line-up is bound to increase the morale of both players and fans.

Thorpe was seen in a baseball uniform in Los Angeles and San Francisco in the fall of 1915, when he was a member of a barnstorming squad of New York Giants.

Godshall Out of Game

Harold Godshall, youthful tennis phenom of Los Angeles and holder of several national junior net titles, has recently announced that he will not be able to take part in any of the tournaments which have been scheduled for the next few months. Too much athletics is the reason given by his physician for his present condition.

Shaved Turkeys Make No Hit With Women

BILLINGS, Mont.—John Olin, embryo dry-land farmer, didn't relish the embarrassment of asking his neighbors how to dress turkeys, so he conceived the idea of "shaving" a number of well-fed birds to put them "in the pink of condition" for marketing.

Olin is now avoiding irate housewives who were astounded to discover a fine crop of "pin feathers" and "turkey whiskers," grown like magic when they removed them from the ovens for "basting."

Policemen and others who walk or stand a good deal are very subject to flat feet.

Tigers are said to suffer more from seasickness than any other animal.

Official Description Of Princess Mary's Wedding Gown Given

LONDON, Feb. 24.—The "official description" of Princess Mary's magnificent wedding gown has been given to the public.

It is of silver cloth, marquisette and duchess satin brocade. Thousands of seed and baroque pearls and minute diamonds of silver bullion were sewed into the cloth, giving it a shimmering appearance of exquisite beauty. The rose, the shamrock, the thistle, the lotus, the wattle, the maple leaf and the tree fern were all cleverly worked into the cloth, representing the various parts of the British empire, which have a flower or a shrub for their symbol.

There is first a straight robe or petticoat of cloth of silver that reaches to the ankles and is cut with square décolletage. The overdress of marquisette is imposed over this. This overdress is of cobwebby fineness and has a "V" shaped décolletage. It falls straight from the shoulders with the pearl and diamond roses worked out in relief and making beautiful tracery amongst the tracteries of the foliage. The sleeves are of three-quarters length.

The World Over

By FRANKLIN B. MORSE
PACIFIC SPORTS SERVICE

To those who have visited Honolulu with an eye open to the main chance which may exist for any line of sporting activity, the thought impresses itself on one that the islanders seen entirely to have overlooked the fact that climatically and scenically they have one of the greatest settings of the world in which to foster golf on a large scale. Aquatics, naturally, form the major element in any athletic schedule, but the wonder is, in view of the fact that it has fostered football, eminently a cold zone game, that it has made no pretensions to reach out in golf.

No game in the world today is making the strides equal to the seven league ones of golf. The Hawaiian islands are endowed climatically for all the year round play. It has scenery unrivaled for the setting of courses and what it now needs is a generous financing. Golf is played all over the world now and one does not have to go far from one's own fig tree to find a good course. The thing then to attract attention is, as far as the professional is concerned, competition accompanied by purses which will make a trip worth while.

The state of California has the same opportunity but, thus far, with all the money available to its rich clubs, it has not yet awakened to the possibilities that lie within its grasp in connection with the game. It is discovered, however, that while its courses are fair to good, it has a lot of work to do and a lot of reconstruction to accomplish before it can hope to attract any of the blue ribbon events.

The Chan country club and the Honolulu Golf club are the principal proponents of the game in the islands. The writer is not aware of the lay of their courses, but from the experience gained by California conditions, it is not at all unlikely that their links will require revision and reconstruction. This takes money, but these changes first must be made before a venture into the wider sphere can be made. California is beginning to learn that it was false economy not to pay for a first rate architect. The placing of hazards, the lay of the land and the run of the fairways now are practically mathematically computed in relation to the yardage of the various shots, as they should be played.

Visalia, Calif., has under construction a course to the west of that city, the latest of the many links of that state that have been coming into being. The membership, at the present time, is to be limited to 200. The membership of a married man includes wife and children providing the latter are more than sixteen years of age.
Links of this character are springing up all over the country, and it is to be hoped that those in charge have taken warning in the matter of getting expert opinion as to the manner in which they should be laid out. Inevitably, failure to do this has resulted, sooner or later, in the club having to face the expense of relaying the course which, in many instances, cost as much, if not more than the original outlay.

Sports Chatter

By BILL UNMACK
PACIFIC SPORTS SERVICE

Some interesting facts are disclosed by an examination of the All-American track and field teams as selected from 1910 to date, originally by the late Jim Sullivan and since his death by Fred Rubien, secretary of the A. A. U.

In track events at least, an analysis shows that the extreme limit of one being able to stick in the "charmed circle" of "All Americans" is five years. This is even rare and strange to some of these "five year terms" have skipped a year.
Our dealings are with outdoor events and indoor are not included.

Ted Meredith stands out pre-eminently as the man having the longest run of continuity as an "All American," though in 1912 and 1913 he was named as the 880 representative and 1914 to 1916 for the "quarter." Joe Ray is the only man who equals this since 1916, his record showing his selection as a five miles in 1916 then from 1918 to last year he was the mile selection or five years in all. For four years straight as the champion of any one event, Ray's record is equalled by F. J. Shea of Pittsburg who was named from 1917 to 1920 for the "quarter."

The 1921 All-American team just announced by Fred Rubien is interesting as it marks the first time since these mythical teams have been named that the same sprinter has been named for both sprints—Charlie Paddock. It has not been customary to name the same man for both events, the system originally worked by Jim Sullivan being that a different man should be named for each event, for the reason that if this mythical team should ever be depended on for competition the two sprinters could be used in each event and so strengthen this department.
Had this system been used this year, while Paddock has beaten him every time they ran, the only logical selection could have been Morris Kirksey of the Olympic club of San Francisco. Where, however, is there a man in a country with a better record last year than Kirksey?

Incidentally Paddock is the first sprinter to be named three years straight for the "hundred." Howard Drew has a lien of three years as the "hundred man" but his selection is all the more remarkable due to the fact that he was named in 1913 and 1914 and it was not until four years later that he was named for the third time. Joe Loomis has two straight years in the "hundred" while Ralph Craig has two straight in the 220 and the next year copped the hundred. The great Kokhemainen only figures two years, separated, in the five mile and in this event Pores stands out with three straight years.
With the exception of Joe Ray no man has a straight run in the one mile, Ray having five years. J. Jones and A. R. Kiviat were selected twice each, sandwiching in between each other.

LAWN TENNIS NOW REVIVING, SAYS SPORT EDITOR

William Tilden, World Singles
Champion, Will Not Defend Title

By DAVIS J. WALSH
Written for International News Service
NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 24.—The international situation in lawn tennis dozing fitfully for six months, is about to be revived and given a little light nourishment.

Coincident with announcement that France and Czechoslovakia has issued formal challenges for the Davis cup comes the report that William Tilden, world's singles champion, will not go abroad this year to defend his title in the all-comers tournament at Wimbledon, England.
The latter item, if true, is of far greater import than a challenge or two. Tilden's visits to Wimbledon were fast becoming a source of national gratification, a thing to be looked forward to with the pleasurable anticipation of the family cat awaiting the milk man.

It was no slight matter to the average American, whether he was interested in tennis or wife-beating, that Tilden could be relied upon to go abroad and quite painstakingly beat the foreign field on any court he elected to place his tennis oxfords on.

Tilden Travels Fast and Far
But Tilden has done more traveling than a cloak and suit salesman since the war and obviously feels that he would like to stick around a bit and get to know the folks at home.
He is very high-strung, as one witness at a hanging said to another, and his long journeys to foreign countries added to the strain of almost constant competition threatened to impair his effectiveness at the fag end of last season.

Just what American entries, if any,
will take part in the Wimbledon affair this year is not known at this time. Bill Johnston, who with Tilden, brought back the Davis cup from Australia several years ago, will hardly go to England. Bill doesn't care much for traveling and his business interests in California prevent him from making serious preparations for any meetings beyond the Davis cup series and the national championships.

Coppers for boiling clothes can now be fitted with pipes to heat wa-

Physicians Fighting to Save Slayer's Life

CHICAGO, Feb. 24.—Physicians have begun a determined battle to keep Harvey W. Church, condemned murderer, alive until March 3, when he is to be hanged for the slaying of Carl Ausmus and Bernard J. Daugherty, automobile salesmen. Church is on a hunger strike and is being forcibly fed by physicians at the county jail.

The death rate in London for 1920 was 12.6 per thousand, which is the lowest ever registered. In New York it was 12.93, also a record.

ASKS FOR $16,200,000

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 24.—Appropriation of $16,200,000 for the completion of all authorized reclamation work in the middle and far west was proposed in the Senate by Senator Poindexter, Republican, of Washington.

Poindexter introduced an amendment to the department of interior appropriation bill asking that all reclamation work already authorized be completed at once as a means of solving the unemployment problem.

It's a good thing to think twice before you speak, and even then you have a few thoughts coming.

RIPPLING SEA RHYME TELLS STORY OF LLOYD'S FILM

'Sailor-Made Man' Delights
At Glendale; 'Morals' Also Worth Seeing

Here's the story of "The Sailor-Made Man," playing at the Glendale Theatre today for the last time in conjunction with the late William D. Taylor's last masterpiece titled "Morals," a real double headline bill—now read on:

When Harold joined the navy, the kid was deep in love; but her papa objected, and gave the boy a shove. He told him he was useless and better get a job, so Harold Lloyd he walked right out and he became a gob.

Rip On Old Ripples

He'd never seen a scupper, he'd never scrubbed a deck, (and in this nifty uniform, he had to scrub his neck). He wondered why the rudder was underneath the ship, and when they ripped an order, why Harold let them rip.

He took a stroll up forward and wished that he was home, he saw a catfish part his hair—he used a cat-actomb. And then up walked the bosun—he'd just ate up a shark—the bosun was light-headed, but he tried to keep it dark.

They had a game of poker, just as sure as you're alive, and the captain had no children so the bosun raised him five. They cruised around the ocean, across the seven seas, for they were after window shades that grew on shady trees. But after while they landed, and all shoved off for shore. I think I ought to stop right now—but, no! I'll tell you more.

Picture The Plot

For Harold met his sweetheart, a cruising with her dad, and when they saw each other—Great Caesar! They

Declares Red-Haired Girls Are Bowlegged

BOSTON—The discovery that New England girls who have red hair are almost invariably either bowlegged or knock-kneed has been made by William H. Sullivan, secretary of the Associated Millinery Industry of New England. Sullivan made this observation after selecting local college girls for models at the annual fashion show.

"Brunettes and blondes usually have perfectly straight legs," Sullivan said, "but a red-headed girl with perfectly-shaped legs is a rarity."

Sciatica may be caused by the habit of sitting perched on the head of a chair.

Giraffes are found only in Central and South Africa, chiefly in desert regions.

we're glad! But woe, there was a sultan, who owned this chunk of land, and when he saw the girl, his heart beat like the band. He had his gang kidnap her, and bring her to the palace—he looked at her and shouted, "My word! This isn't Alice!"

Well, Mildred didn't like him—although he wore a beard—and as the lady yanked it, why, Harold Lloyd appeared! He gave this uncouth sultan an awful nasty crack, and when he wasn't looking he kicked him in the back.

So girl and boy were married—it was their little plan—and all because he had become—"A Sailor-Made Man."

Mystery, Adventure, Under-world and War Stories to Stir Readers' Emotions

Mystery stories are predominating in the new volumes which have recently been released at the public library on Harvard street. The following books are included in those offered:

"The Purple Heights," by Marie Conway Oemler. A novel rich in mystery and tears and in thrilling dramatic situations.

"A Woman Named Smith," by Marie Conway Oemler. The story is laid in the south. It is a two-handed love story told with whimsical charm.

"A Court of Inquiry," by Grace S. Richmond. Refreshing, human and entertaining.

"Strawberry Acres," by Grace S. Richmond, and also "The Brown Study," by the same author.

Packed With Thrills
"The Wire Devils," by Frank L. Packard. They were experts in telegraphy. Masters of the art of cipher codes. The Wire Devils moved from one astounding exploit to another, baffling secret service men, government agents and detectives.

Mystery and suspense are maintained to the very end.

"The Adventures of Jimmie Dale," by Frank L. Packard. His father being a builder of burglar proof safes, Jimmy knows all about them and for the fun of it turns burglar.

but always returning the loot, in reality only playing a game with the police. The story tells how he learns all the secrets of thieves, finds a crime club and a pretty girl and dedicates himself paradoxically to the uplift of law and order.

"The White Moll," by Frank L. Packard. The adventures of a feminine Jimmie Dale and her thrilling escapades in the underworld.

Packard Scores Heavy
"The Beloved Traitor," by Frank L. Packard. The big drama of fame versus love's kindness is involved. The scenes of the story are laid in Paris.

"The Sin that Was His," by Frank L. Packard. A novel of old Quebec.

"Greater Love Hath No Man," by Frank L. Packard for those who have reared him. He sacrifices his career for the son of the man and woman who adopted him.

"The Rainbow Trail," by Zane Grey. The story of a fine young clergyman whose experiences with his narrow congregation make him feel a failure as a minister. The book also throws revealing searchlights on some of the interesting phases of Mormonism.

Fiction for Young Folks
In the young folks' department the following are included in the volumes recently released:

"Kings, Queens and Pawns," by Mary Roberts Rinehart. Mrs. Rinehart studied intimately in the field the women's part of the great war, their work in the Red Cross, under fire; the women who stayed home, and the attitude of the grim fighting men toward the women under fire.

"Dangerous Days," by Mary Roberts Rinehart, and "K," by the same author.

"Long Live the King," by Mary Roberts Rinehart. A story of love, intrigue and adventure in a European court. The story shows the weakness of monarchy surrounded by treachery and held together by terror.

"A Treasure of Plays for Children," edited by Montrose J. Moses. A collection of dramas to be read and to be acted, fourteen stories in all.

West's Humiliated Wednesday Night by Losing First Match in Season

The fourth round of play in Class B of the local Elks' scratch bowling league, which took place on Wednesday night in the club alleys, was productive of the biggest upset of the season—namely, that of the Sallmacias' clean victory over the heretofore league-leading Wests, who were further humiliated by losing their first match of the campaign.

The scores of the three games were: Sallmacias—449, 475, 421; Wests—431, 401, 389.

The other two matches played were won by the Lawrence and the Watties. The former, trimming the Bullards two out of three and the latter taking the odd game from the Vogels. The final contest of the Lawrence-Bullard tussle was easily the most spectacular of the evening, with the two captains taking the stellar roles. Lawrence rolled a total of 156 for the game, finishing one point ahead of Bullard and nosing out the opposing squad by the same margin. The final score was 460 to 459.

By a most unusual coincidence both the first honors and the "booby" prize were taken by "Bill" Sauter, lead-off man of the Bullards, who had the distinction of being the only bowler to make a score of 200 or one below the century mark. His total in the first game was 85, while that of his last contest was an even 200. High bowlers on each of the other teams were as follows: Watties—Abbey, 190; Vogels—Royles, 178; Lawrence—Kausen, 169; Wests—Pennock, 174; Sallmacias—Newkirk, 171.

Mice-Catching School Is Opened for Kittens
NEW YORK—"Make your cats useful. I'll train them to be adept at catching mice and rats."

That's the word a local clothing manufacturer passed among his friends after he discovered two parent cats in his factory teaching their offspring the rudiments and also the higher arts of the profession of "mousing." Mice were found to be destroying thousands of dollars' worth of clothing material.

The result is a thriving training school for cats, where no entrance examinations are given and no tuition fees are charged. The classes are always filled.

Helps in Cold Weather
The Intermediate school has about decided that it would not be half as efficient a place of learning without its cafeteria. For, during the cold snap, almost every child in school was able to have at least a bowl of hot soup or a cup of chocolate to help keep him warm.

A well nourished child does good work in school and that is the chief reason the cafeteria is now considered quite as important as history or arithmetic, it is said by the instructors.

The lowest point in North America is Death valley, California—276 feet below sea level.

SCHOOL CAFETERIA SUCCEEDING AT INTERMEDIATE

Year's Test Proves Worth of Hot Food, Instructors State; Girls Assist Cooks

After a year's trial the Intermediate School Cafeteria has proved itself to be not only a great addition, but a real necessity to the school in general. Mr. and Mrs. George B. Thatcher, who manage the cafeteria, have had considerable experience along that line and serve a luncheon to the children that is healthful and inexpensive. The average child's lunch costing about eighteen cents.

The cafeteria is backed by the Intermediate school P. T. A. and is supposed to be a self-supporting institution. So far it has proven to be entirely self-supporting and has been able to add some equipment to the original investment. About 200 children eat a hot lunch daily at almost the same cost as that of the cold lunch they would otherwise bring from home.

Older Girls Assist
Ten girls from the seventh and eighth grades assist Mrs. Thatcher in the serving, and Francis Moffit, of the A-S-H-I-F class checks the trays. Miss Margaret Sharpe is official cashier.

The Parent-Teachers association that worked so hard to have the cafeteria installed feel amply repaid for their efforts when they see the results but feel that much of the credit is due the children, many of whom buy their lunches with their own earnings, and the very efficient managers.

Mr. and Mrs. Thatcher have taken a deep interest in the children and are constantly thinking up new dishes to please them. They have also added window boxes of ferns and hanging baskets of greenery to the basement room where lunch is served, helping to make it a pleasant and attractive place.

WEEK END BILL
AT T. D. & L.VIEWS ON PEACE
FOR WORLDFamed Comedian Brings Cheer
To Vaudeville Patrons as
'Nobody' Does in FilmEditor of Northeast Argosy and Father of L. A. Police Chief Sees Roseate Future

This should be a gala week-end for the theatre-goers of Glendale for Noodles Fagan, the international comedian is to be seen today and Saturday as the featured attraction of the vaudeville road show at the T. D. & L. theatre.

In securing Noodles Fagan and Elsie, as the headliners on this bill, Meiklejohn & Dunn are particularly fortunate for it is very seldom that Fagan is seen other than on the largest of vaudeville circuits.

However, through the courtesy of Alexander Pantages, the appearance of this jovial comedian has been arranged and he promises to make Glendale laugh as it has never before.

The gowns worn by Miss Elsie are sure to cause comment among the feminine contingent of this city and old and young alike will more than approve of the performance of little Mary, who assists this couple with their mirthmaking.

Noodles finds it difficult to leave the stage at the end of his act for he is recalled time and time again to sing more of his rhymes.

The Noodles Fagan company is only one of the five attractions that will be seen on this well balanced bill of vaudeville and the photoplay, "Nobody," a First National attraction—a story of mystery, thrills and romance.

The importance of the accomplishments of the Washington disarmament conference have not yet begun to be appreciated by the citizens of the United States, according to James Everington, publisher of The Northeast Argosy at Minneapolis, who has been spending the winter at 206 Fairview avenue with his son, Col. J. W. Everington, chief of police of the city of Los Angeles.

"We have a glimmering, fitful, rather hazy conception of what is being done in a big way by big men to stabilize the world," declared Mr. Everington. "The world is floating through chaos in a condition brought about by a selfish ambition, made possible by mercenary cunning and a contributing mass of ignorance. We were floundering, but have finally reached a firmer footing. The massed intelligence of the world today is just finding itself and is experiencing the thrill of a new discovery."

Peace firmly established
"As in days long passed away men followed the leadership of great minds so today we rejoice in the leadership of the master minds of the present generation. Statesmen who, as Lloyd George puts it, 'do not haggle like horse traders,' are making good. The peace of the world rests on a firmer base than ever before."

"Whatever view as individuals we may have of the Washington Conference, one definite fact has been established," stated Mr. Everington. "It is outside the pale of controversy and to talk against it would be idiotic. It was successful from a moral standpoint."

Future Looks Bright
"Secretary of State, Charles E. Hughes, as Edward E. Hurley so finely expressed it in his talk to the members of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce Wednesday night, 'has won the admiration and respect not only of the delegates, but of the entire world by the masterly manner in which he presented America's position in navy disarmament and the Far Eastern situation.'"

"Big men of vision are supplanting the 'chattering politicians' and as intimated, the massed intelligence of the world is not only expressing itself but feeling a sense of relief from pressure put upon it by the disorganized and disintegrating lust for power."

"We are moving forward. Led by humanized business the future looks bright."

BUFFALO REACH SURPLUS

WAINWRIGHT, Alta.—With the buffalo in the government park at Wainwright numbering more than 5,000 and with prospects of the herd, now the largest in the world, eventually outgrowing the 100,000-acre park, the Canadian government is seeking ways to commercialize the surplus animals.

RABBITS GROWING HORNS

RED OAK, Ia.—Iowa rabbits are growing horns. John Perry, a farmer of this community, recently killed a "cotton tail" carrying two well-developed prongs on its scalp. The horns were fully as long as the ears of the rabbit, and closely resembled those of a goat.

WHEN IT RAINS IT POURS

Secretaries Rhoades and Sanders of the Chamber of Commerce are out of the city, having gone to El Centro to attend the state secretaries' convention. Miss Esther Morgan, stenographer, is ill, and that leaves only Miss Nellie Warner, the information clerk, and Student Secretary Purinton to attend to the large amount of inquiry and service given by the organization.
